Clov. Beckham Orders Inspector Hines To Take a Look at the Books of the Usupers-

Frankfort, Ky., June 2 .- Gov. Beckham this morning ordered State Inspector Henry B. Hines to make a thorough inspection of the books and accounts of the Republican usupers of the state minor offices. He authorized the state imspector to go to the bottom of affairs on Statehouse square, and demands an inspection of everything there. Hines is authorized to employ clerical assistance is needed.

The order was in the nature of a sensation to the lone representatives of the defunct administration who are on watch in the absence of their chiefs. Judge Hines called at the statehouse this morning and made a formal demand for the books. He did not receive a direct answer, but was told that ex-Gov, Bradley, attorney for the usurpers. is expected here today or tomorrow, and that usurpers will act under his advice in the matter.

None of the so-called Republican state officials is in the city, and the books are in charge of clerks.

Ex-Representative J. Morgan, Chinn, of Mercer county, was today appointed by Gov. Beckham as steward of the feeble minded in-

SERVICE BUILDING AT THE PAN-AMERICAN EXPOSITION.

Copyright, 1990, by the Pan-American Exposition Co.

The large Service building at the Pan-American Exposition, to be held in Buffalo from May 1 to Nov. 1, 1901, was completed in 32 working days and was the first building erected on the grounds. It is the present home of a large corps of officers and employees having immediate charge of the constructive work of the Exposition. This handsome building is 95 by 145 feet, two stories high. In it are the offices of the director of works, the landscape architect, superintendent of building construction, purchasing agent, chief engineer, mechanical and electrical engineer, with their numerous assistants.
